

Worksheet: Sequence 1 — migration experiences

Mix and match 3D activity

Using your own historical knowledge, organise the following three-dimensional jumble of dates, key events and points of significance in a chronological order table.

This worksheet is based on Sequence 1 teaching and learning guidelines and materials. One example has been provided.

Year

1901, 1959, 1946, 1956, 1963, 1947, 1968, 1958, 1949, 1954

Key events

Immigration Restriction Act

Immigration Dictation Test abolished

End of Displaced Person's Scheme

The 'Nest Egg Scheme'

Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia

Snowy Mountains Scheme

'the days of our isolation are over'

New migration policy criteria

Displaced persons scheme begins

The Hungarian Revolution

Points of significance

First Commonwealth Immigration legislation

14,000 refugees to Australia after Soviet Union invasion

Immigration Minister's speech

Over £500 and own accommodation required

To assist Eastern Europe refugees from countries controlled by Soviet Union immediately after WWII

Major public works scheme using mainly migrant workers

6000 refugees to Australia following invasion by Soviet Union

Provided about 170,000 refugees as migrants to Australia

Immigration selection on individual merits rather than nationality

Key mechanism of White Australia policy

Select content, outcomes and suggested sequence activities based on resources in this Unit and create your own teaching and learning program.

Year	Key event	Point of significance
1901	Immigration Restriction Act	First Commonwealth Immigration legislation